

REPUBLICAN PARTY CALLED THE "WORLD'S SOLE HOPE" FOR FREEDOM, PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL ORDER BY NATIONAL CHAIRMAN REECE AT CONVENTION

Sounds Preliminary Keynote for 24th
Convention

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

We Won in 1946, and We Will Win in 1948,
He Says

By William Theis
(In N. S. Staff Correspondent)
PHILADELPHIA, June 21—The 24th Republican National Convention, cockade of naming the next President of the United States, opened today with terrific enthusiasm.

GOP National Chairman Carroll Reece in his opening address to the confident delegates and the spectators jamming the galleries, called the Republican party the "world's sole hope" for freedom, peace and world harmony.

Leading aspirants for the Presidential nomination—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Sen. Robert
A. Taft of Ohio, former Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota and the thundering herd of well-backed dark horses were making last-minute moves as the convention was called to order.

The convention floor buzzed with talk of the "big three" and with rumors of the possibility that Sen.
Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan might emerge as the number one man.

Chairman Reece, in a convention-opening declaration, called the Republican Party today the "world's sole hope" for freedom, peace and international order.

Reece sounded a preliminary keynote for the 24th Republican nominating session on the day of its opening in Philadelphia's Convention Hall.

He charged that for 15 years the American people have lived under a system described as "economic cannibalism." And he added in a speech prepared for convention delivery:

"The people, wiser, poorer, and terribly in debt, are returning home to the sound principles of honest money, an honest day's work, a recognition of the need for thrift, and the importance of individual freedom."

Reece was the principal speaker scheduled for the opening convention session. Tonight the GOP delegates who will nominate their party's presidential candidate will hear Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois, a favorite son candidate himself, deliver the keynote address.

Welcoming speeches by Mayor Bernard Samuel of Philadelphia and Governor James H. Duff of Pennsylvania also featured the first session of this history-making convention.

Reece said there were two powerful political forces "in the world today—one the Republican Party, the other the Communist Party. He called the GOP the "champion of constitutional government" and he branded Communism as "an international conspiracy."

Reece hammered at the Democratic Administration and praised Republicans for their ability to agree on final objectives. He said:
"Today we have a united party.
In our party, we have no radical wing, no Moscow wing, and no Pendergast wing."

The former Congressman from Tennessee said that the "eyes of the world are focussed upon this political convention." He pointed to the disappearance of individual liberty behind the iron curtains abroad and asserted that the principles of freedom are being lost.

DEWEY SEES VICTORY FOR DEWEY

Having made his way through a large crowd that surrounded his car, New York's Governor Thomas Dewey, with his wife, wave from a vantage point outside Republican headquarters in Philadelphia, seemingly unaware of the finger being pointed at them by a fervent convention delegate, Gov. Dewey flatly predicted that he would be the Republican presidential nominee "on a fairly early ballot."

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Writing to the State Pardons Board in Harrisburg, District Attorney Edward G. Biester has registered opposition to granting the commutation plea of Charles H.
Arnwine, 400, of Newtown.

Arnwine was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Eastern State penitentiary for the slaying of his sweetheart in 1933. He was convicted of first degree murder in the fatal shooting of Frances Rempfer, also of Newtown.

This is Arnwine's fifth attempt to gain his freedom.

Observance of children's night at the meeting of Middletown Grange in the community house, Langhorne, last evening, was marked by an attendance of about 75 persons, including the members of the Grange and their families.

During the evening a mock wedding was staged with Sylvia Tomlinson playing the part of the bride and Richard Pickering the part of the groom. Others taking leading roles were Bertha Thompson, B.
Heston, Charles Palmer, Betty Newbold, Susie Heston, Virginia Lownes, Eugene Yoder and Richard McKinney.

At the conclusion of the program
ice cream and cookies were served.

Diplomas were presented to 36 members of the senior class of North Wales high school at the 60th annual commencement, in North Wales.

The program included the presentation of awards for scholastic achievements, citizenship and sports, and an address by Dr. Carroll D. Champlin, State College, a noted world traveler and lecturer, who took as his subject "Invitation to Reality."

Dr. Champlin pointed out that the world of reality is the natural world, and that it is much more wonderful than an artificial world.
He discussed the atmosphere of gloom in the world today, and explained that the situation is not hopeless.

The speaker urged the graduates to acquaint themselves with the real things of life, to enlighten others and to try to understand other people.

o'clock, and burial in St. Mark's Cemetery will be in charge of Vincent D. Galzerano, funeral director.
The young man was inducted into the U. S. Army November 9, 1942, No. 433, A. L., of Morrisville.

The corps made its first appearance of this year and was up against very stiff competition because of the outstanding American Legion Corps and four of the V. F. W. Corps were competing.

The following are the corps which participated in the competition, and are arranged according to position in which they placed: Howard C.
McCall, Phila. national "champs of V. F. W.; Robert W. Bracken, of Bristol; East Germantown V. F. W., Phila.; and Sohy Post, American Legion, of Langhorne (tied for 4th position); Upper Darby (State "champs" of American Legion); Horn-Ross-Weiss V. F. W., and Coleman-Murray-Page V. F. W., of Upper Darby.

Bristol Cadets were away from McCall Post by 1.45 points. Last week McCall entered into competition at Baltimore, and received honors for first place. Bracken Post Cadets are receiving much credit for their fine appearance on their first field competition during the year and they hope to put on a better appearance for the State Convention.

On August 20th the Bracken Post Cadets will go to Philadelphia for the American Legion State Convention to be held at the municipal stadium, and it is their aim to come back with the 1948 championship.

The Bracken Cadets have been invited to participate in a competition to be held in Allentown on July 5th.

Films To Deal With U. S. Troops in Europe

CROYDON, June 21—The regular meetings of Joseph A. Schumacher Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Ladies' Auxiliary will be omitted on Tuesday evening. In their stead there will be shown a motion picture dealing with U. S. troops in action in the European Theatre. This picture will be shown in the Croydon Fire Co. station.

All veterans, auxiliary members and their families, as well as all units who marched with the post on Memorial Day, are invited to be present.

"The last motion picture shown in the post room dealing with our army and navy in action in the Pacific Theatre was greatly enjoyed by all those present. The one to be shown Tuesday promises to be just as interesting, if not more so, hence we feel sure that those who attend will not only enjoy, but will realize more fully what our men had to go through to make our country safe," a post officer states.

Grant Mitchell To Star In "The Late George Apley"

NEW HOPE, June 21—Grant Mitchell, distinguished actor of the legitimate theatre and a recent ning at Theron Hamberger's Bucks County Playhouse, here.

"The Late George Apley," written by J. P. Marquand and George S.
Kaufman, the latter a resident of Bucks County, was an important Broadway success only a few seasons back. It treats in satirical vein with the vanishing aristocrat, exemplified by Bostonian Mr. Apley, and his attempts to keep his children from living the free and democratic life of our times.

(In N. S. Staff Correspondent)
24th Republican National Convention, coalesce of naming the next President of the United States,
opened today with terrific enthusiasm.

GOP National Chairman Carroll Reece in his opening address to the
confident delegates and the spec-
the Republican party the "world's sole hope" for freedom, peace and
world harmony.

Leading aspirants for the Presidential nomination—Gov. Thomas
E. Dewey of New York, Sen. Robert
A. Taft of Ohio, former Gov. Harold
Stassen of Minnesota and the thundering herd of well-backed dark
horses were making last-minute
moves as the convention was called to order.

The convention floor buzzed with
talk of the "big three" and with
rumors of the possibility that Sen.
Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan
man.

Chairman Reece, in a convention-
opening declaration, called the Republican Party today the "world's sole hope" for freedom, peace and international order.

Reece sounded a preliminary keynote for the 24th Republican nominating session on the day of its opening in Philadelphia's Convention Hall.

He charged that for 15 years the American people have lived under
a system described as "economic cannibalism." And he added in a speech prepared for convention delivery:

"The people, wiser, poorer, and
terribly in debt, are returning home
to the sound principles of honest
money, an honest day's work, a recognition of the need for thrift, and

Reece was the principal speaker
scheduled for the opening convention session. Tonight the GOP delegates who will nominate their party's
presidential candidate will hear Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois, a favorite son candidate himself, deliver the keynote address.

Welcoming speeches by Mayor Bernard Samuel of Philadelphia and Governor James H. Duff of Pennsylvania also featured the first session of this history-making convention.

Reece said there were two powerful political forces in the world
today—one the Republican Party,
the other the Communist Party. He
constitutional government" and he branded Communism as "an international conspiracy."

Reece hammered at the Democratic Administration and praised Republicans for their ability to
agree on final objectives. He said:

"Today we have a united party.
In our party, we have no radical
wing, no Moscow wing, and no Pendergast wing."

The former Congressman from
world are focused upon this political convention." He pointed to the
disappearance of individual liberty
asserted that the principles of freedom are being crushed.

DEWEY SEES VICTORY FOR DEWEY

car, New York's Governor Thomas Dewey, with his wife, wave from
a vantage point outside Republican headquarters in Philadelphia,
seemingly unaware of the finger being pointed at them by a fervent convention delegate, Gov. Dewey flatly predicted that he would be the Republican presidential nominee "on a fairly early ballot."

Board in Harrisburg, District Attorney Edward G. Biester has registered opposition to granting the
commutation plea of Charles H.
Arnwine, 400, of Newtown.

Arnwine was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Eastern State penitentiary for the slaying of his sweetheart in 1933. He was convicted of first degree murder in the
fatal shooting of Frances Rempfer,
also of Newtown.

This is Arnwine's fifth attempt
to gain his freedom.

Observance of children's night at the meeting of Middletown Grange
in the community house, Langhorne,
attendance of about 75 persons, including the members of the Grange
and their families.

During the evening a mock wedding was staged with Sylvia Thompson playing the part of the bride and Richard Pickering the part of the groom. Others taking leading
roles were Bertha Thompson, B.
Heston, Charles Palmer, Betty New-
bold, Susie Heston, Virginia Lowmes, Eugene Yoder and Richard McKinney.

ice cream and cookies were served.

Diplomas were presented to 36
members of the senior class of North Wales high school at the 60th annual commencement, in North Wales.

The program included the pre-
achievements, citizenship and
sports, and an address by Dr. Carroll D. Champlin, State College, a noted world traveler and lecturer,
to Reality."

Dr. Champlin pointed out that
world, and that it is much more
wonderful than an artificial world.
He discussed the atmosphere of
explained that the situation is not
hopeless.

The speaker urged the graduates
other people.

Consolidation Interest Lack Decried By C. of C.

DOYLESTOWN, June 21—Doyle-town Chamber of Commerce members have expressed regrets that Doylestown has not shown "more active interest in school consolidation."

At a meeting at the end of the week, C. of C. members, in discussion the local school board's withdrawal from the four-board joint central Bucks high school, asked:
"Why doesn't Doylestown do more about having a joint school and consolidation?" and "Why hasn't our own local business and civic organizations taken more interest in having a joint school set-up?"

It was suggested by various Chamber of Commerce officials that an effort be made to obtain the needed information concerning the joint school move and contact the adjacent school districts in an effort to bring about the organization of the joint school.

CROYDON, June 21—The regular
meetings of Joseph A. Schumacher Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and
the Ladies' Auxiliary will be
their stead there will be shown a
motion picture dealing with U. S. troops in action in the European Theatre. This picture will be shown in the Croydon Fire Co. station.

on Memorial Day, are invited to be present.

"The last motion picture shown
in the post room dealing with our
army and navy in action in the Pa-

shown Tuesday promises to be just as interesting. If not more so,
country safe," a post officer states.

THE RENAISSANCE
What makes men's minds dwell fondly on memories and reminders of things past? What is it about some middle-aged performers that makes eyes water when they strut about the stage again in self-imitation of triumphs long gone by?

Sophie Tucker, "the last of the red hot mamas," wows them in London after an absence of 12 years. She isn't young. She isn't pretty. Her songs are old. Her voice has found its peers. And yet two jammed London theatres welcomed her back with 15 minutes of solid bravos. In the end, women and men alike joined the 64-year-old trouper in the snuffles.

Just the other day, Maurice Chevalier, the crooner and mimic of another era, the famed French flirt, took Broadway by storm. His face has fewer dimples, his head less hair than ever. But with a hat and cane for props, he packed them in for weeks in a one-man show of sentimental songs—at $4.40 a head.

Al Jolson is back. The nation and show business have gone through crisis after crisis, a major war, and scores of terrifying new developments since the black-faced jazz singer first fell on his knees, spread those beseeching arms and gave out with "Mammy" and "Sonny Boy" and set a new high quotation for musical corn. Al, too, is in his sixties and his vocal cords have loosened with the years. But people are humming "April Showers" again.

Perhaps it is that when those long-lost tunes fill up the void of empty walls once more, there rises in men's minds the image of a day when life itself seemed just a melody, once gay, once sad, but always ringing out on notes of hope.

HIGH COST OF POLITICS
The Republican national convention in Philadelphia is being covered by the largest corps of newspaper men in the nation's history. A full complement of radio mouthpieces is also there. There are 1,200 reporters on the job, representing newspapers in this country and abroad, plus 500 photographers. Scores of others are taking care of radio broadcasts.

More than 1,600 special telephones have been installed, and 120 telegraph circuits have a capacity of 5,000 words a minute. Press boxes surrounding the speakers' table accommodate 800 workers, and facilities for the remainder have been set up in the basement of convention hall. The proceedings will be sent out by television. In addition, much of the proceedings will be recorded, later to be edited and rebroadcast.

Politics has become big business in this country. The two conventions will cost millions of dollars. The Republican National Committee will spend $5,000 a day for music alone, which could develop into a sizeable item if there is a deadlock.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol May 12, 1898. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

Mr. William Leigh, who has purchased the windmill and tank formerly used for the water supply of the Black Horse Hotel, removed them from landlady Henry Lovett's premises this week preparatory to re-erecting them on his premises, just outside the borough, in Bristol township.

George Summerfield... has been engaged to play the piano on the "Columbia" during the coming summer months.

Miss Edith Morrow's tendered services as an army nurse have been accepted by the government. She is now awaiting orders.

The Addisonian Society was formally organized on Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian Church with an enrollment of 25 members of the young men of Bristol. The society was instituted for the mutual improvement of the members, and, as the name implies, will be of a literary character. On the meeting night the evening's entertainment will be a debate upon the topical subject "Resolved, That the United States should retain possession of the Philippines." Messrs. J. J. Campbell and Oscar Booz will have the affirmative and Messrs. W. L. Joyce and C. M. Guyon the negative side of the argument.

Goodwill Fire Co., No. 3, on last Saturday purchased the O'Brien lot on the corner of Swain and Pearl streets for the sum of $500. A meeting of the company will be held next Monday night to decide upon the improvements to be made to the building, 18x32 feet, on the premises. It is likely that the lower floor will be divided into two rooms, the front one for the reception of the fire apparatus and the rear for a lounging room, while the upper floor will be converted into a large parlor where the business of the company will be transacted.

phia, wore dresses of pale orchid fashioned the same as the maid of honor's. They wore gold slippers and carried yellow roses. The two junior bridesmaids, the Misses Olive Cochran, sister of the bridegroom, and Grace Porter, Philadelphia, were gowned in pale yellow, also styled like that of the maid of honor. They carried old-fashioned bouquets of mixed flowers.

The bridegroom's attendants were Messrs. James Oliver, best man; and Albert Gross, Peter Caputa, and William Cochran, ushers, all of Bristol.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of ice-blue crepe and white accessories. The mother of Mr. Cochran wore a light blue dress with white accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

A reception was arranged in the Mutual Aid Hall, Bristol, for over 300 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran will spend two weeks honeymoon.

Five Relatives Attend Two Who Are Wed at Zion Church

Five relatives of the bride and groom were members of the Bolton-Jenkins bridal party at Zion Lutheran Church on Saturday afternoon. The ceremony united Miss Joan S. Jenkins and Mr. William R. Bolton and was performed at the hour of two by the Rev. Paul Gleichman, pastor of the church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jenkins, 340 Wood street, and she was given in marriage by Mr. Jenkins. Mr. Bolton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bolton, 304 Wood street, at which address the newlyweds will make their home.

The gown of white bridal satin made for the bride by her mother had a short train sweeping from the fullness of the skirt. Sleeves tapered over her hands, and the gown buttoned down the back with hand-crocheted loops. The gown featured a square bustle in back and a sweetheart style neckline. A pearled orange blossom tiara held a net veil, with face veil, these being edged, and finger-tip in length. Her colonial bouquet was made up of white roses and baby breath.

Gowns of the four attendants of the bride were of taffeta. Miss Lois Bolton, Wood street, cousin of the bridegroom, wore a gown of orchid shade, with short, puffed sleeves and full skirt. The bridesmaids were the Misses Algetta and Arlene Jenkins, Scranton, cousins of the bride, the former being attired in yellow and the latter in aqua. Wide ruffles of self-material provided an off-shelf effect, and skirts were cut full. Floral and net headpieces matched the individual costumes, and each carried a colonial bouquet of mixed blossoms. The flower girl was Judith Jenkins, two-year-old sister of the bride. She was gowned in light green taffeta with matching poke bonnet and yellow roses filled a basket which she carried. To the young women the former Miss Jenkins gave pearl necklaces, and her gift to the flower girl was a bracelet.

Mr. Ariond Jenkins, brother of the bride, served Mr. Bolton as best man, and chosen as ushers were Messrs. Matthew Corning and Joseph Burton, both of Bristol. The young men received the clasps from Mr. Bolton as mementoes of the wedding.

At a dinner served at the Jenkins home, 50 guests were served, with 100 invited to the reception in Bristol Fire Co., No. 1 station at six o'clock.

As the two left for a honeymoon at Atlantic City, N. J., Mrs. Bolton was attired in a two-piece navy blue suit with ruffled peplum and trim of silver buttons, navy blue slippers, pink hat and gloves. She wore white roses made into a corsage.

The bridegroom as a member of the U. S. army, saw service in the

Five relatives of the bride and groom were members of the Bolton-Jenkins bridal party at Zion Lutheran Church on Saturday afternoon. The ceremony united Miss Joan S. Jenkins and Mr. William R. Bolton and was performed at the hour of two by the Rev. Paul Gleichman, pastor of the church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jenkins, 340 Wood street, and she was given in marriage by Mr. Jenkins. Mr. Bolton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bolton, 304 Wood street, at which address the newlyweds will make their home.

The gown of white bridal satin made for the bride by her mother had a short train sweeping from the fullness of the skirt. Sleeves tapered over her hands, and the gown buttoned down the back with hand-crocheted loops. The gown featured a square bustle in back and a sweetheart style neckline. A pearled orange blossom tiara held a net veil, with face veil, these being lace edged, and finger-tip in length. Her colonial bouquet was made up of white roses and baby breath.

Gowns of the four attendants of the bride were of taffeta. Miss Lois Bolton, Wood street, cousin of the bridegroom, wore a gown of orchid shade, with short, puffed sleeves and full skirt. The bridesmaids were the Misses Algetta and Arlene Jenkins, Scranton, cousins of the bride, the former being attired in yellow and the latter in aqua. Wide ruffles of self-material provided an off-shoulder effect, and skirts were cut full. Floral and net headpieces matched the individual costumes, and each carried a colonial bouquet of mixed blossoms. The flower girl was Judith Jenkins, two-year-old sister of the bride. She was gowned in light green taffeta with matching poke bonnet and yellow roses filled a basket which she carried. To the young women the former Miss Jenkins gave pearl necklaces, and her gift to the flower girl was a bracelet.

Mr. Ariond Jenkins, brother of the bride, served Mr. Bolton as best man, and chosen as ushers were Messrs. Matthew Corning and Joseph Burton, both of Bristol. The young men received tie clasps from Mr. Bolton as mementoes of the wedding.

As the two left for a honeymoon at Atlantic City, N. J., Mrs. Bolton was attired in a two-piece navy blue suit with ruffled lapels and trim of silver buttons, navy blue slippers, pink hat and gloves. She wore white roses made into a corsage.

JUNIOR LEGION LOSES FIRST GAME TO DOYLESTOWN

The bats of the Bristol Junior Legion team were silenced for the first time this season Saturday afternoon as the local representatives in the Bucks County Junior Legion League lost to the Doylestown team on the Third Ward field. Final score was 6-0. It was Bristol's first loss of the season.

Only one hit was made by the resident team as "Dick" Duerr handed them a nice coat of white wash. The county-seaters' moundman whiffed eight batters and walked three. Only one Bristol player got as far as third base and one other got as far as second. In five of the seven innings, Duerr retired the side in order.

Not only was Duerr whipping his fast ball past the Bristol batters but he was backed up by the best of fielding. "Johnny" Pindar was robbed out of base hits twice. Once Grater made a sensational stop and throw to toss him out and in the seventh, Bob Speakman went along the bank in left field to make a one-handed catch of his extra base bid.

Pindar did a good job of relief hurling for the losing team. He relieved Dave Muth in the third and allowed two hits the remainder of the game. "Dave" Muth, the starting Bristol hillman, was taken out in the third, when a walk, four hits, and two errors gave Doylestown a quintet of markers.

Doylestown started a rally in the fifth when Speakman and Funk led off with singles but on McCarty's fly to Eisenbrey, Speakman attempted to score and was nipped at the plate.

Bristol's lone chance to score took place in the second inning. With one gone, Moll made the only hit off Duerr, a line drive to right field. Dominick walked and both advanced on a double-steal. But Duerr put some extra smoke on the horseshoe and fanned both Hibbs and Loeffler.

The local team will travel to Langhorne this evening to meet the Langhorne Junior Legion on Playwick field.

DEITCH PITCHES "TWO-HITTER" AND BLANKS 5TH WARD

In his first mound start since he switched uniforms, "Mike" Deitch pitched a two-hitter yesterday afternoon for St. Ann's as the Saints handed the Fifth Ward Sporting Club a 10-0 nest of goose-eggs on the Memorial Park field.

Deitch, former Voltz-Texaco twirler, struck out 11 of the Fifth Ward batters and the only clean hit was a two-bagger from the bat of Henry Liberator. Tommy Forte made the other hit, a beat out ball to the second baseman. Deitch walked but one batter and only one runner got as far as the hot corner. The former minor league hurler retired the last fourteen batters in order and whiffed the side in the final frame.

St. Ann's had no mercy on three Fifth Ward hurlers, "Ralphie" Narcisi, Liberator, and "Smithers" Cordisco, getting a total of 15 hits. Art Massi had a double and two singles while the longest hit of the tilt was a triple to the fence in left field by "Sugar" Sallustio in the fifth frame.

DEMOCRAT CLUB SCORES 8TH WIN

The Democrat Club notched its eighth win of the Bristol Suburban League campaign yesterday afternoon, trimming the Lewis Lodge, 6-2, on Leedom's field. It was the sixth straight loss for the Clinton Lodge.

Manager "Sid" Purcell used his recently-acquired peckman, Bob Ghanit, on the mound and the West Bristol boy allowed the Elks to bat two hits. The pair of safeties were next in the second inning. For the next seven frames, Ghanit held the losers runless and scoreless. Seven of the Elks were sent down on strikes.

Y., and parts of Canada. They will reside with the bride's parents in Edgely. The bride chose as her travelling outfit a white suit with navy accessories, and an orchid corsage. ## DEITCH PITCHES "TWO-HITTER" AND BLANKS 5TH WARD

In his first mound start since he switched uniforms, "Mike" Deitch pitched a two-hitter yesterday afternoon for St. Anne's as the Saints handed the Fifth Ward Sporting Club a 10-0 nest of goose-eggs on the Memorial Park field.

Deitch, former Voltz-Texaco twirler, struck out 11 of the Fifth Ward batters and the only clean hit was a two-bagger from the bat of Henry Liberatore. Tommy Forte made the other hit, a beat out ball to the second baseman. Deitch walked but one batter and only one runner got as far as the hot corner. The former minor league hurler retired the last fourteen batters in order and whiffed the side in the final frame.

St. Anne's had no mercy on three Fifth Ward hurlers, "Ralphie" Narci, Liberatore, and "Smithers" Cordisco, getting a total of 15 hits. Art Massi had a double and two singles while the longest hit of the tilt was a triple to the fence in left field by "Sugar" Sallustio in the fifth.
